History: Cr. Register, January, 1994, No. 457, eff. 2-1-94.

Med 1.02 Applications and credentials. Every person applying for regular license to practice medicine and surgery shall make application therefor on forms provided for this purpose by the board and shall submit to the board the following:

- (1) A completed and verified application form.
- (2) Verified documentary evidence of graduation from a medical or osteopathic school approved by the board and a verified photographic copy of the diploma conferring the degree of doctor of medicine or doctor of osteopathy granted to the applicant by such school. The board recognizes as approved those medical or osteopathic schools recognized and approved at the time of the applicant's graduation therefrom by the council on medical education and hospitals of the American medical association, or the American osteopathic association, or the liaison committee on medical education, or successors. If an applicant is not a graduate of a medical school approved by the board, but is a graduate of a medical school recognized and listed as such by the world health organization of the united nations, such applicant shall submit verified documentary evidence of graduation from such school and a verified photographic copy of the diploma conferring the degree of doctor of medicine or equivalent degree as determined by the board granted to the applicant by such school and also verified documentary evidence of having passed the examinations conducted by the educational council for foreign medical graduates or successors, and shall also present for the board's inspection the originals thereof, and if such medical school requires either social service or internship or both of its graduates, and if the applicant has not completed either such required social service or internship or both, such applicant shall also submit verified documentary evidence of having completed a 12 month supervised clinical training program under the direction of a medical school approved by the board.
- (3) A verified certificate showing satisfactory completion by the applicant of 12 months' postgraduate training in a facility approved by the board. The board recognizes as approved those facilities and training programs recognized as approved at the time of the applicant's service therein by the council on medical education of the American medical association, or the American osteopathic association, or the liaison committee on graduate medical education, or the national joint committee on approval of pre-registration physician training programs of Canada, or successors. If an applicant is a graduate of a foreign medical school not approved by the board and if such applicant has not completed 12 months' postgraduate training in a facility approved by the board, but such applicant has had other professional experience which the applicant believes has given that applicant education and training substantially equivalent, such applicant may submit to the board documentary evidence thereof. The board will review such documentary evidence and may make such further inquiry including a personal interview of the applicant as the board deems necessary to determine that such substantial equivalence in fact exists. The burden of proof of such equivalence shall lie upon the applicant. If the board finds such equivalence, the board may accept this in lieu of requiring that applicant to have completed 12 months' postgraduate training in a program approved by the board.

(4) An unmounted photograph, approximately 8 by 12 cm., of the applicant taken not more than 60 days prior to the date of application and bearing on the reverse side the statement of a notary public that such photograph is a true likeness of the applicant.

Med 8.01 Authority and purpose. (1) The rules in this chapter are adopted by the medical examining board pursuant to authority in ss. 15.08 (5), 227.11, 448.04 (1) (f) and 448.40, Stats., and govern the licensure and regulation of physician assistants.

(2) Physician assistants provide health care services as part of physician-led teams, the objectives of which include safe, efficient, and economical health care. The realities of the modern practice of medicine and surgery require supervising physicians and physician assistants to use discretion in delivering health care services, typically at the level of general supervision. The constant physical presence of a supervising physician is often unnecessary. The supervising physician and the physician assistant are jointly responsible for employing more intensive supervision when circumstances require direct observation or hands-on assistance from the supervising physician.

PROPOSED ORDER

An order of the Massage Therapy and Bodywork Therapy Affiliated Credentialing Board to renumber MTBT 5.02; to repeal and recreate MTBT 5.01 and to create MTBT 5.02, relating to unprofessional conduct.

Analysis prepared by the Department of Safety and Professional Services.

ANALYSIS

Statutes interpreted:

Section 460.04 (2), 460.14 (2) (a) to (j), Stats.

Statutory authority:

ss. 15.085 (5) (b), 227.11 (2) (a) and 460.04 (2) (a), Stats.

Explanation of agency authority:

Pursuant to ss. 15.085 (5) (b), and 227.11 (2) (a), Stats., the Massage Therapy and Bodywork Therapy Affiliated Credentialing Board (Board) is generally empowered by the legislature to promulgate rules that will provide guidance within the profession and rules that interpret the statutes it enforces or administers. Section 460.04 (2) (a), Stats., specifically empowers the Board to draft rules regarding the professional conduct of licensees practicing massage therapy or bodywork therapy. This proposed rule seeks to carry out this mandate by revising the rules related to unprofessional conduct.

Related statute or rule:

None.

Plain language analysis:

The passage of 2009 Wisconsin Act 355 transformed the Massage Therapy and Bodywork Council into the Massage Therapy and Bodywork Therapy Affiliated Credentialing Board (Board). The Act granted the newly formed Board rule-making authority. Pursuant to that authority, the Board reviewed its unprofessional conduct rules and decided the rules were outdated and needed updating. The modernization of the rules will not result in a significant policy change but rather a further clarification of the ethical goals of the profession.

SECTION 1. creates a section identifying the authority to promulgate the proposed rules.

SECTION 2. renumbers MTBT 5.02.

SECTION 3. modernizes the definition of unprofessional conduct for massage therapist and bodywork therapists.

Summary of, and comparison with, existing or proposed federal regulation:

None.

Comparison with rules in adjacent states:

Illinois: The grounds for unprofessional conduct for Illinois licensed massage therapists and bodywork therapists are governed by statute, ILL. COMP. STAT. 225/57, and not rule as in Wisconsin. The rules are similar to current Wisconsin unprofessional conduct rules in that they are comprehensive ranging from prohibitions against false advertising to inability to practice with reasonable judgment and skill.

Iowa: The Iowa Administrative Code sets forth the grounds for discipline of massage therapists in 645 IAC 134.2. The rules are similar to Wisconsin in that they cover a variety of topics; however the Iowa rules focus primarily on fraudulent behavior such as fraud in procuring a license, untruthful or improbable statements in advertising, and acceptance of any fee by fraud.

Michigan: Prohibited conduct of massage therapists as set forth in Michigan Administrative Code R 338.723, is limited to eight prohibitions. The prohibitions focus primarily on exceeding the boundaries of a professional relationship with clients such as taking on a professional role when a personal, scientific, legal, financial, or other relationship impairs the exercise of professional discretion or being involved in a dual relationship with a current or former client.

Minnesota: In Minnesota massage therapy and bodywork therapy are identified as complementary and alternative health care practices, Minn. Stat. §146A.01. Those who conduct alternative health care practices are regulated by statute, Minn. Stat. §146A.08. The statute identifies prohibited conduct covering a variety of topics including: prohibition against sexual contact with clients, adjudication as mentally incompetent and fraudulent billing practices.

Summary of factual data and analytical methodologies:

The Board reviewed its current unprofessional conduct rules and decided that the rules needed to be updated to conform to current practice within the profession. No other factual data or analytical methodologies were used. The Board ensures the accuracy, integrity, objectivity and consistency of data were used in preparing the proposed rule and related analysis.

Fiscal Estimate and Economic Impact Analysis:

The Fiscal Estimate and Economic Impact Analysis are attached.

RE: NPDB Continuous Query

Continuous Query is a renewable ongoing monitoring service that alerts a subscribing entity, within 1 business day, when a report is received on an enrolled practitioner at the Data Bank. Enrollment of physicians and other health care practitioners in Continuous Query satisfies legal and accreditation requirements for querying the NPDB. Practitioners (including locum tenens practitioners) with privileges and appointments may be enrolled in Continuous Query.

For $3.25 per enrollee per year, the subscribing entity receives the same report information as a One-Time Query response, and then receives ongoing monitoring of each enrolled practitioner. Entities are given the option to easily renew enrollments, manually or automatically.

An email notifies the entity when a new report is submitted to the DataBank, allowing the entity to take immediate action to obtain and appropriate review the new report. Continuous Query is more effective and efficient alternative to One-Time Query and is the query method used by more than 4,000 registered DataBank health care organizations. Continuous Query is monitoring more than 1.5 million individual enrollments every day.

DataBank identifies 5 reasons for organizations to use Continuous Query

1. Know within 1 business day when a report is received on an enrolled practitioner at the DataBank.
2. On-demand access to all information for enrolled practitioners. Request and receive enrollment confirmation whenever you need to and provide surveyors with a listing of enrolled practitioners; when each report was disclosed; when it was viewed; and who within your organization viewed the report.
3. Meets legal and accreditation requirements for querying the NPDB.
4. Improves credentialing process by saving time and staff resources with effortless 24/7 coverage so appropriate action and review can occur.
5. Email alerts are sent to you about new, revised, corrected, or voided report information as soon as it is submitted – no need to wait 2-3 years to find out.

MEDICAL EXAMINING BOARD 2013 ANNUAL REPORT

(January 1, 2013 – December 31, 2013)

DIVISION OF LEGAL SERVICES AND COMPLIANCE

The Division of Legal Services and Compliance (DLSC) provides legal services to professional boards and regulated industries. A separately funded Prosecution Team serving the Medical Examining Board and its affiliated Credentialing Boards consists of intake staff, investigators, paralegals, prosecutors, and a designated board counsel. DLSC also monitors compliance with disciplinary orders and administers the Professional Assistance Procedure -- a confidential monitoring program for impaired professionals.

2013 Key DLSC Statistics/Information for the Medical Examining Board (MEB):

- Complaints Received: 542
- Approximately 50% of complaints received are closed at screening.
- Complaints Resolved:
 - Respondents/cases closed by the MEB Formally: 74
 - Respondents/cases closed by the MEB after Investigation (without a Formal Order): 120
 - 23 (of the 120) were Administrative Warnings
 - Respondents/cases closed by the MEB's Screening Panel: 259
- MEB case backlog eliminated: Cases pending from Year 2011 (9) and Year 2012 (31)
- DLSC compliance with statutory deadlines (death and three year cases): 100%
- Average resolution time for Closed Formally: 9.59 months; Closed after Investigation: 6.38 months
- Most common discipline issued by the Board: Reprimands and License Limitations.
- Primary source of complaints originated from consumers
- As of March 11, 2014, 155 active physicians are being monitored.
- As of March 11, 2014, 21 active physicians are enrolled in the Professional Assistance Procedure.
- Paperless case screening initiative for Medical Examining Board Screening Panel was implemented.

SOURCE OF COMPLAINTS

RESPONDENTS/CASES CLOSED - YEAR 2013

- NO VIOLATION OF STATUTES OR RULES - There is sufficient evidence to show that no violation of statutes or rules occurred.
- ADMINISTRATIVE WARNING - There was an Administrative Warning issued to the credential holder pursuant to Sec. 440.205, Stats. Administrative warnings do not constitute disciplinary action or the imposition of discipline and may not be used as evidence that the credential holder is guilty of the alleged misconduct.
- INSUFFICIENT EVIDENCE FOR PROSECUTION (IE) - There is insufficient evidence to meet the standard of proof required to prove that a violation occurred.
- PROSECUTORIAL DISCRETION (P2) - There may have been a minor or technical violation but a decision was made not to commence formal disciplinary action on the grounds that compliance with statutes or rules has been gained.
- PROSECUTORIAL DISCRETION (P3) - There may have been a violation that is more than a minor or technical violation. However, it is not a violation, which caused serious harm, and a determination has been made that the expenditure of resources required to pursue the violation would greatly exceed the value to the public of having the matter pursued.
- PROSECUTORIAL DISCRETION (P5) - There may have been a violation, but because the person or entity in question cannot be located, is no longer actively practicing or does not have a current credential to practice, a decision was made to close the case and place a "FLAG OR HOLD" on the credential in accordance with the Department's "Hold Status and Flagged Credentials" Policy. In the event that the person or entity is located, an application for renewal of the credential is received or the credential is renewed, the case may be re-opened and reconsidered.
- PROSECUTORIAL DISCRETION (P7) - There may have been a violation, but the regulatory authority has taken action in regard to this credential holder that addressed the conduct and further action is unnecessary.
- PROSECUTORIAL DISCRETION (P1) - There may have been a minor or technical violation but a decision was made not to commence formal disciplinary action because the incident in question was not seriously harmful to the public.
- PROSECUTORIAL DISCRETION (P6) - There may have been a violation, but litigation is pending which involves the credential holder and affects the licensing authority's ability to investigate the case. At the conclusion of the litigation, the case will be reviewed and the licensing authority may consider the case once again.

Limitation: Wis. Stat. § 440.01(1)(d) to mean “to impose conditions and requirements upon the holder of the credential, and to restrict the scope of the holder’s practice.”

Reprimand: Wis. Stat. § 440.01(1)(e) to mean “publicly warn the holder of a credential.”

Revocation: Wis. Stat. § 440.01(f) to mean “to completely and absolutely terminate the credential and all rights, privileges and authority previously conferred by the credential.”

Suspension: Wis. Stat. § 440.01(h) to mean “to completely and absolutely withdraw and withhold for a period of time all rights, privileges and authority previously conferred by the credential.” Licensee may not engage in the practice of the profession during term of suspension.

Suspension (Summary): Wis. Admin. Code § SPS 6.01(3) provides that summary suspension may be used when the facts establish “that the respondent has engaged in or is likely to engage in conduct such that the public health, safety or welfare imperatively requires emergency suspension of the respondent’s license.” If summary suspension issued by Board, a formal complaint must be filed shortly thereafter and the hearing must be held promptly, so it is critical that all evidence is ready, including expert testimony if necessary. The Respondent has the right to a Hearing to Show Cause under the provisions of Wis. Admin. Code § SPS 6.09.

Voluntary Surrender: A voluntary relinquishment of a credential as a means of resolving the matter.

Notes

- The total number of disciplines/outcomes will be higher than the number of Final Decisions and Orders. A Final Decision and Order may involve multiple discipline/outcomes.
- This chart does not include Administrative Warnings because they are not considered discipline.

PERCENTAGE OF CASES/RESPONDENTS THAT MET THE STATUTORY DEADLINE IN 2013

Wis. Stat. § 448.02(3)(cm) – The Board may initiate disciplinary action against a physician no later than one year after initiating an investigation of an allegation involving the death of a patient and no later than three years after initiating an investigation of any other allegation, unless the Board shows to the satisfaction of the Secretary that a specified extension of time is necessary for the Board to determine whether a physician is guilty of unprofessional conduct or negligence in treatment.

Date initiating an investigation – Wis. Admin. Code § SPS 2.20(2) Computing Time Limits. In computing time limits under s. 448.02(3)(cm), the date of initiating an investigation shall be the date of the decision to commence an investigation of an informal complaint following the screening of the informal complaint under s. SPS 2.023, except that if the decision to commence an investigation of an informal complaint is made more than 45 days after the date of receipt of the informal complaint in the division, or if no screening of the informal complaint is conducted, the time for initiating an investigation shall commence 45 days after the date of receipt of the informal complaint in the division. The date that the Medical Examining Board initiates a disciplinary action is the date that a disciplinary proceeding is commenced under s. SPS 2.04.

MONITORING and PAP

LICENSEES IN MONITORING PROGRAM AS OF MARCH 11, 2014 - Active: 155

Active monitoring is the monitoring of cases with pending requirements with specific due dates or timeframes. Such cases require considerable resources/action by monitoring staff to ensure compliance. Examples of these requirements are costs, work reports, drug screens, therapy, etc.

Types of disciplines/actions that require monitoring:

1. Remedial Education: The licensee is required to take continuing education in a specific topic.
2. Exam: The licensee is required to take and pass successfully an examination (ex. FSMB's Special Purpose Examination).
3. Impairment: The licensee is suspended for a period ordinarily of five years with stays allowing the licensee to practice as long as the licensee remains in compliance with the Order. The licensee must usually undergo random drug screens, attend AA/NA meetings, enter into treatment, submit self reports, and arrange for therapy reports and mentor reports.
4. Limitations: Impose conditions and requirements upon the holder of the credential, or restrict the scope of the holder's practice, or both.
5. Mentor: The licensee is required to have a professional mentor, who provides practice consultations and evaluations as specified by the Order.
6. Reports: The licensee is required to have reports by a therapist or supervisor submitted to the Department.
7. Revocation: The licensee must return their license to DSPS and is prohibited from practice in the State of Wisconsin. If the credential holder reapplies for licensure, the Board may grant the license with or without conditions.
8. Suspension: A licensee is suspended from practice for a set period of time or indefinitely. Some suspensions may be stayed under specific conditions.
9. Voluntary Surrender: The licensee surrenders the registration and/or license. The licensee is prohibited from practice in the State of Wisconsin. If the person reapplies for licensure, the Board may grant the license with or without conditions. Some Orders prohibit the licensee from seeking reinstatement/reapplying after surrendering.

LICENSEES ENROLLED IN PROFESSIONAL ASSISTANCE PROCEDURE (PAP) AS OF MARCH 11, 2014: 21

- For the majority of chemically dependent professionals, this is an opportunity to seek treatment without losing their professional credentials.
- PAP promotes early identification of chemically dependent professionals and encourages their rehabilitation.
- PAP offers participants an opportunity to obtain treatment for chemical dependency while ensuring that immediate action can be taken should a participant relapse or drop out of treatment. Participation in PAP will not exempt the professional from discipline.
- PAP does not provide treatment, but monitors participants' progress in treatment with an approved treatment provider.

DIVISION OF PROFESSIONAL CREDENTIAL PROCESSING

The Division of Professional Credential Processing (DPCP) issues over 230 types of credentials and renews these credentials on annual, biennial, or 4-year cycles. The DPCP also processes the verification requests of Wisconsin credential-holders seeking reciprocal credentials in other states.

The DPCP provides a specially funded team of credentialing specialists to the Medical Examining Board, and these specialists process those applications for physicians and associated professionals. The Medical Team ensures applications meet eligibility requirements established in Wisconsin statutes and administrative code, and annually issues over 2,000 new physician credentials and biennially renews over 22,000 licenses.

During 2013, the Medical Team worked to streamline application forms and credentialing processes to ensure those applicants seeking licensure by the Medical Examining Board had their applications processed in a timely manner.

2013 Key DPCP statistics for the Medical Examining Board:

- Applications received: 2,155
- Licenses issued: 2,044
- Average new application review time: 7-10 business days
 - In most cases, licenses were issued on the same day that all documents were received and requirements were met.
- Licenses renewed: 22,348
- Licenses renewed online: 21,663 or 96.9%.
- Verifications completed: 1,647
- Applicants that sat for the oral exam: 98
- Applicants that passed the oral exam: 84

Note: During 2012, DPCP received 1,584 applications and issued 1,418 licenses.

Subject: RE: IMED and WHO lists

Tom,

To address your question, I reached to colleagues at the ECFMG. They were able to recap the convoluted history of medical school directories and provide a list. Below I have provided a summary and attached the most recent list.

Since 1953, the WHO has published several editions of its World Directory of Medical Schools. ECFMG used the WHO Directory as a reference for acceptability for ECFMG Certification until the Directory's last edition, published in 2000. Shortly thereafter, ECFMG's established a foundation (FAIMER). One of FAIMER's primary tasks became the maintenance of a new directory of medical schools (IMED). The schools listed in the last edition of the WHO Directory formed the basis of IMED, but hundreds of medical schools have been added to IMED since 2000. The WHO officially discontinued collecting medical school information in 2007 and turned the responsibility over to the World Federation for Medical Education (WFME). The WFME published their own Avicenna Directory of medical schools online in 2008. Over the past couple of years, FAIMER and WFME have been working to combine their two directories into a new comprehensive directory called (again) the World Directory of Medical Schools. If all goes as planned, the first version of this new World Directory will be published in the next month or two. The new World Directory will contain all schools that are in either IMED or Avicenna. The three directories will coexist for about a year to allow users time to transition to the World Directory. One thing to note is that neither ECFMG nor FAIMER recognize or accredit medical schools. Schools are added when ECFMG receives confirmation from a local government agency that the school is recognized in that jurisdiction.

I hope this helps.

Sincerely,
Aaron

Subject: IMED and WHO lists

Hi Aaron, I am trying to find a list of the schools ECFMG recognizes and also the WHO list to fulfill a Board request. I have located the IMED search tool online but the Board specifically asked for a list of schools we recognize, and our current rule cites the WHO list. Can you send me a list of both or a link to where I might find the lists that I could pass on to the Board? Also, can you tell me if there is any difference between the lists?

Thank you for your assistance.

State Medical Board Exposure to Threats of Violence

Analysis of data from a national survey to determine the extent of threats of violence aimed at U.S. state medical boards and steps they take in response to the issue

By Kelly C. Alfred, MS; Timothy Turner, BBA; and Aaron Young, PhD

ABSTRACT: Between 2010 and 2012, the Federation of State Medical Boards Research and Education Foundation (FSMB Foundation) conducted a survey of state medical boards in an effort to ascertain the extent to which state medical board members and staff have experienced threats of violence and the actions taken by state boards in response to such threats. The survey also assessed current and anticipated levels of security being provided by state boards. Of the 70 boards queried, 37 responded, with 73% (n=27) of these boards reporting that their board members and/or staff had experienced either explicit or implied threats of violence. These threats targeted board members (85%), board staff (78%) and others (15%). Many of the threats directed at board members occurred after board meetings and/or hearings and were made by either a physician or a family member of a physician. Most of the threats directed at board members, staff and others were verbal, including threats of death. Most boards provide a security presence at board meetings, ranging from local law enforcement agencies to private security firms, but less than half of the respondents in the survey expressed satisfaction with their present security level. The results of the survey suggest that the state medical board community should be aware of the potential for violence against board members and staff, and should formulate prevention and threat-assessment policies as a precaution. Educational and training resources may be needed at the state board level. This could include the development of educational modules to train state public officials in conflict management, the prevention and handling of acts of violence, and how to identify and assess the seriousness of a potentially violent or stressful situation.

Introduction

Violence and threats of violence in the workplace, topics that have been increasingly featured in the news, are serious public health problems. According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health, an estimated 1.7 million injuries per year are due to workplace assaults, with simple assault the most common type of violence.¹ In addition, the Bureau of Labor Statistics has reported homicide as the fourth-leading cause of fatal occupational injury in the United States. Of 4,349 fatal work injuries reported, 521 were related to workplace homicides in the preliminary count for 2009.²

Certain occupations experience higher rates of violence directed at those who work in those professions (e.g., police officers, security guards, taxi drivers, and gas station workers). While the health care community has not experienced high rates of violence compared to these other settings, verbal and physical violence against physicians, other health care workers and staff is not uncommon. From 1997–2009, 8,127 occupational homicides occurred.³ Of the 73 homicides reported to have occurred in the health services industry, 20 occurred in hospitals and 17 in offices and clinics of medical doctors.³

The stressful environment in some health care settings, the prevalence of weapons among patients, their families and friends, and the increasing number of acute and chronic mentally ill patients seeking health care related services all contribute as risk factors in violent attacks against physicians and health care workers.⁴ Numerous cases of violence against physicians have been reported in the last few years, putting a national spotlight on violence and security issues in health care settings.

As an integral part of the U.S. health care system, the state medical board community has cause to view these trends with concern. Moreover, the stressful conditions that often accompany state medical board investigations and disciplinary actions can create highly contentious and emotionally charged environments—which could be considered potential precursors to violence or violent threats.

Perhaps the most visible illustration of this possibility can be found in the case of Trent Pierce, MD, a practicing family physician and board chair of the Arkansas State Medical Board.

On the morning of February 4, 2009, Dr. Pierce was critically injured when a bomb exploded in his car as he prepared to travel to a board meeting, a calculated attack leaving him severely burned and without his left eye.⁵ Soon after the bombing, federal agents arrested an Arkansas physician on charges of illegally owning high-explosive grenades. The physician had become a “person of interest” in the attack against Dr. Pierce. According to prosecutors, the attack against Dr. Pierce was planned in retaliation after he and the Arkansas State Medical Board revoked the physician’s prescription writing privileges.⁶

After hearing a month’s worth of evidence, including testimony from Dr. Pierce, a federal jury convicted the physician on August 9, 2010, on charges of using a weapon of mass destruction against a person and destroying a vehicle with an explosive device. On February 28, 2011, he was sentenced to life in prison for orchestrating the attack against Dr. Pierce. On June 13, 2013, the physician petitioned the U.S. Supreme Court to review his case.⁷

While the violent attack against Dr. Pierce represents an extreme case—one that resulted in extensive national media coverage—the general topic of violence or threats of violence aimed at state medical board members or staff has not received attention in academic literature or been closely studied. Despite the recent high profile of incidents of violence in health care settings, the nature and extent of how the problem might impact state medical boards remain largely unknown.

The dearth of data prompted the FSMB Foundation to develop and distribute an online survey designed to determine the extent of violent threats against state medical board members and staff, and how state boards respond to the issue.

Methodology

Purposes

To better understand the extent of violent threats experienced by the board members and staff of the nation’s 70 state and territorial medical boards, and to generate useful knowledge for the boards, the FSMB Foundation developed an online survey. While the primary objective of the survey was to estimate the extent of violent threats against state board members and staff, the survey was also established as a way to determine the actions taken by state boards in response to the threats of violence, and the security measures boards currently have in place.

Design

The survey was designed to be simple to complete to ensure that a substantial portion of the target population would respond. The survey did not attempt to gauge the frequency of threats or to analyze the root cause(s) of violence against state board members and staff, but to explore the risk of exposure to violence. The survey consisted of four distinct sections:

1. The occurrence of explicit or perceived threats against board leadership and staff.
2. The actions boards took in response to the threats of violence.
3. The boards’ current and future security measures for board leadership and staff.
4. Questions about state legislation regarding the consequences of threatening a public official.

Data Collection

The online surveys were generated by the FSMB Foundation and were administered using the web-based survey tool, Survey Monkey. The online surveys were initially distributed via email to all 70 state medical boards in October 2010. The invitation to participate in the study was emailed to all state board executive directors and included a link to the online survey. State boards were asked to complete the online survey six weeks after receiving the invitation.

Initial data was shared with representatives of state boards at the FSMB’s 2011 Annual Meeting, who suggested that the survey be distributed a second time to generate additional responses. The FSMB Foundation redistributed the violence survey via Survey Monkey in January 2012 to the executive directors of those boards who had not responded to the initial survey. The questions asked on the redistributed survey were identical to those of the original survey. Boards were asked to complete the online survey within 30 days after receiving the subsequent invitation.

In both rounds of data collection, respondents were asked to identify their board affiliation but were not required to respond.

Fifteen fundamental questions were developed for this study:

1. In the history of your board, have there ever been any threats of violence (either overt threats or covert perceived threats) against board members or board staff?
2. If there were threats, were they against board members, board staff or others?
3. If there were threats of violence, what type of action(s) did the board take?
4. If your board is appointed by the governor and there was a threat, did you notify the governor's office?
5. If you notified the governor's office, what was their response?
6. For whom does your board routinely provide security?
7. What type of security does your board provide?
8. If your board routinely provides security for specific individuals, which individuals do you cover?
9. If your board routinely provides security, where do you provide it?
10. Please comment on your future plans for security.
11. If you are planning to change your level of security, what are you planning to do?
12. What barriers do you face in providing the level of security you would like?
13. Does your state have legislation regarding consequences of threatening a public official?
14. Would you be interested in pursuing legislation in your state if a draft were provided to you?
15. What other comments do you have?

Results

Of the 70 state medical and osteopathic board executives receiving the initial survey, 22 were returned (31.4%). Of the 22 responding boards, 16 (73%) noted their board affiliation: Colorado, Washington, D.C., Georgia, Montana, North Carolina, Nevada-Medical, Nevada-Osteopathic, Ohio, Oklahoma-Medical, Oklahoma-Osteopathic, Tennessee-Medical, Texas, Washington-Medical, Washington-Osteopathic, Virginia and the U.S. Virgin Islands.

Subsequently, when the survey was redistributed in January 2012 to the 48 remaining boards, 15 additional surveys were returned (response rate, 31.3%). Boards participating in this second round of data collection included Connecticut, Florida-Medical, Hawaii, Idaho, Indiana, Kentucky, Maryland, Maine-Medical, Maine-Osteopathic, Mississippi, Nebraska, New Hampshire, West Virginia-Medical and West Virginia-Osteopathic.

Combining the results from the first and second rounds of data collection produced an overall survey response rate of 52.9% with 37 returned surveys.

Board Experiences with Threats of Violence

Based on the pooled data, of the 37 state boards that responded to the question of whether their board members or staff have ever experienced threats of violence at the board level, 73% (n=27) reported that in the history of their board, there had been threats of violence (either overt or covert [explicit or perceived]) against board members or board staff (see Figure 1).

Of the responding states, 85% indicated that board members had been the target of violent threats, followed by board staff (78%) and others (15%). Threats directed at "others" included individuals who are associated with a state board, but not employed by a board, such as an assistant attorney general, a hearing officer, a district judge, and, in one case, the state's governor.

Many of the threats directed at board members occurred after board meetings. Most of the threats were made by either a physician or a family member of a physician, and were verbal, including threats of death.

Actions Taken by State Boards in Response to Threats of Violence

When asked what actions were taken as a result of threats of violence, the responding boards indicated the vast majority of actions taken revolved around ensuring a security presence at board meetings, whether that was through local law enforcement agencies or the hiring of private security. Most state boards that experienced threats of violence tended to notify law enforcement (62%) or seek private security (38%). For 48% of boards, the threat(s) resulted in law enforcement investigations (see Figure 2).

Boards seldom notified the governor's office of a threat (25%). When they did, the governor's office would take note of the information and then instruct them to contact and coordinate with capitol police or proper law enforcement to ensure the issue(s) was addressed properly.

Current Security

Approximately 76% of the respondents indicated that their board provides some type of routine security. For these boards, security is typically provided at board offices (69%) and board meeting locations (62%).

The type of security varies, but locking office doors (47%) or having offices in buildings that require identification for access (42%) are the most widely used security types. Private security (33%), local law enforcement (28%), and panic alarm systems (19%) are also utilized. Seventeen percent of the respondents reported their board did not provide any kind of security (see Figure 3).

Satisfaction and Future Plans for Security

As indicated in Figure 4, less than half of the respondents (49%) are satisfied with their security but only 26% are planning to increase it. However, if finances were no object, 72% would choose to increase their security.

For the eight boards planning to change their level of security, four are considering a security presence at board meetings, one is taking steps to better secure its office building by installing video cameras, one is having security use handheld metal detectors at meetings, one is adding a panic button at the receptionist desk and another is moving to a new building with security officers, bag checks and scanners—although the move was not related to security.

For the boards that are not planning to make any security changes, funding to pay for added security (both initial and ongoing) is the primary barrier. Building factors are a distant second (i.e., a building houses other entities or must allow for public access when open).

Legislation

Approximately 64% of the responding boards indicated that their state has legislation regarding consequences for threatening a public official. However, only 39% indicated they would be interested in pursuing legislation in their state if a draft were provided (see Figure 5).

Among those responding to this question, a handful provided additional comments:

"Members of the board and board staff do not have the ability to lobby the legislature."

Type of action(s) taken by boards due to threats of violence

"Yes, if it (the legislation) is reasonable in the expectation and fiscal impact."

"Board members are employees of the state and have the same protective rights as state workers."

"Don't know if there is current law on this subject. At this time, don't feel the security threats we have experienced to date warrant such legislation."

Discussion

The results from this study indicate that threats of violence against state medical board members and staff are not uncommon. The finding that nearly three-fourths of the state boards that responded to the survey had experienced some form of violent threat is remarkable and suggests that the issue occurs in a wide range of jurisdictions.

Executive directors reported a variety of threats anecdotally, including both explicit and perceived forms, and including threats of death. In one reported incident, the threat was so credible that a board staff member wore a Kevlar vest during a hearing for his own protection. In another, a physician under investigation by a board threatened to bring a bomb to a board meeting.

Survey results show that state boards have taken steps to respond to such threats of violence. However, while less than half of the respondents are satisfied with their present security level, only 26% are planning to increase security. The initial and ongoing costs for additional or new security are the primary barrier, as 72% indicated they would increase security if finances were no object.

It is important to note that this survey was limited in scope and should be considered only the beginning of an effort to better understand the issue of violence aimed at state medical boards. For example, respondents were asked if there have "ever" been threats of violence against their understanding of the scope of the problem and the direction of any trend lines in the incidence of violent threats.

Additionally, more analysis should be conducted on the demographics of state boards and whether there are any correlations between board composition, geographic location and the incidence and nature of violent threats. Further study could also examine the role of other agencies, such as the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA), in helping state boards address the potential for violence against state board members and staff as a unique workplace issue.

A comprehensive study of the incidence of actual acts of violence throughout the medical regulatory community could also yield important data. In responding to this survey, board executive directors provided a description of physical violence in addition to violent threats, ranging from an incident in which a physician whose license had been suspended fire-bombed the house of a witness to an altercation in a parking lot in which board members were accosted following a hearing.

These survey findings suggest that the state medical board community should be aware of the possibility of violent threats. Since it is impossible to know if and when a violent threat might be carried out, understanding the risk factors and formulating prevention and threat assessment policies may be the most effective approach to addressing the issue.

Additionally, educational and training resources may be needed at the state board level. This could include the development of educational modules to train state public officials in conflict management, the prevention and handling of acts of violence, and how to identify and assess the seriousness of a potentially violent or stressful situation. ■

SECTION 2. 448.02 (1) of the statutes is amended to read:

448.02 (1) LICENSE. The board may grant licenses, including various classes of temporary licenses, to practice medicine and surgery, to practice as an administrative physician, to practice perfusion, to practice as an anesthesiologist assistant, and to practice as a physician assistant.

SECTION 3. 448.02 (3) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

448.02 (3) (a) The board shall investigate allegations of unprofessional conduct and negligence in treatment by persons holding a license, or certificate or limited permit granted by the board. An allegation that a physician has violated s. 253.10 (3), 448.30 or 450.13 (2) or has failed to mail or present a medical certification required under s. 69.18 (2) within 21 days after the pronouncement of death of the person who is the subject of the required certificate or that a physician has failed at least 6 times within a 6-month period to mail or present a medical certificate required under s. 69.18 (2) within 6 days after the pronouncement of death of the person who is the subject of the required certificate is an allegation of unprofessional conduct. sider the results of one or more physical, mental or professional competency examinations if the board believes that the results of any such examinations may be useful to the board in conducting its investigation.

SECTION 4. 448.02 (3) (b) of the statutes is amended to read:

448.02 (3) (b) After an investigation, if the board finds that there is probable cause to believe that the person is guilty of unprofessional conduct or negligence in treatment, the board shall hold a hearing on such conduct. The board may use any information obtained by the board or the department under s. 655.17 (7) (b), as created by 1985 Wisconsin Act 29, in an investigation or a disciplinary proceeding, including a public disciplinary proceeding, conducted under this subsection and the board may require a person holding a license, or certificate ~~or limited permit~~ to undergo and may consider the results of one or more physical, mental or professional competency examinations if the board believes that the results of any such examinations may be useful to the board in conducting its hearing. A unanimous finding by a panel established under s. 655.02, 1983 stats., or a finding by a court that a physician has acted negligently in treating a patient is conclusive evidence that the physician is guilty of negligence in treatment. A finding that is not a unanimous finding by a panel established under s. 655.02, 1983 stats., that a physician has acted negligently in treating a patient is presumptive evidence that the physician is guilty of negligence in treatment. A certified copy of the findings of fact, conclusions of law and order of the panel or the order of a court is presumptive evidence that the finding of negligence in treatment was made. The board shall render a decision within 90 days after the date on which the hearing is held or, if subsequent proceedings are conducted under s. 227.46 (2), within 90 days after the date on which those proceedings are completed.

SECTION 5. 448.02 (3) (c) of the statutes is amended to read:

448.02 (3) (c) Subject to par. (cm), after a disciplinary hearing, the board may, when it determines that a panel established under s. 655.02, 1983 stats., has unanimously found or a court has found that a person has been negligent in treating a patient or when it finds a person guilty of unprofessional conduct or negligence in treatment, do one or more of the following: warn or reprimand that person, or limit, suspend or revoke any license, or certificate ~~or limited permit~~ granted by the board to that person. The board may condition the removal of limitations on a license, or certificate ~~or limited permit~~ or the restoration of a suspended or revoked license, or certificate ~~or limited permit~~ upon obtaining minimum results specified by the board on one or more physical, mental or professional competency examinations if the board believes that obtaining the minimum results is related to correcting one or more of the bases upon which the limitation, suspension or revocation was imposed.

SECTION 6. 448.02 (3) (e) of the statutes is amended to read:

448.02 (3) (e) A person whose license, or certificate ~~or limited permit~~ is limited under this subchapter shall be permitted to continue practice upon condition that the person will refrain from engaging in unprofessional conduct; that the person will appear before the board or its officers or agents at such times and places as may be designated by the board from time to time; that the person will fully disclose to the board or its officers or agents the nature of the person's practice and conduct; that the person will fully comply with the limits placed on his or her practice and conduct by the board; that the person will obtain additional training, education or supervision required by the board; and that the person will cooperate with the board.

SECTION 7. 448.02 (3) (h) of the statutes is amended to read:

448.02 (3) (h) Nothing in this subsection prohibits the board, in its discretion, from investigating and conducting disciplinary proceedings on allegations of unprofessional conduct by persons holding a license, or certificate ~~or limited permit~~ granted by the board when the allegations of unprofessional conduct may also constitute allegations of negligence in treatment.

SECTION 8. 448.02 (4) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

448.02 (4) (a) The board may summarily suspend any license, or certificate, ~~or limited permit~~ granted by the board when the board has in its possession evidence establishing probable cause to believe that the holder of the license, or certificate, ~~or limited permit~~ has violated the provisions of this subchapter and that it is necessary to suspend the license, or certificate, ~~or limited permit~~ immediately to protect the public health, safety, or welfare. The holder of the license, or certificate, ~~or limited permit~~ shall be granted an opportunity to be heard during the determination of probable cause. The board chair and 2 board members designated by the chair or, if the board chair is not available, the board vice-chair and 2 board members designated by the vice-chair, shall exercise the authority granted by this paragraph to suspend summarily a license, or certificate, ~~or limited permit~~ in the manner provided under par. (b).

SECTION 9. 448.02 (4) (b) of the statutes is amended to read:

448.02 (4) (b) An order of summary suspension shall be served upon the holder of the license, or certificate, ~~or limited permit~~ in the manner provided in s. 801.11 for service of summons. The order of summary suspension shall be effective upon service or upon actual notice of the summary suspension given to the holder of the license, or certificate, ~~or limited permit~~ or to the attorney of the license, ~~permit, or limited permit~~ certificate holder, whichever is sooner. A notice of hearing commencing a disciplinary proceeding shall be issued no more than 10 days following the issuance of the order of summary suspension. The order of summary suspension remains in effect until the effective date of a final decision and order in the disciplinary proceeding against the holder or until the order of summary suspension is discontinued by the board following a hearing to show cause. The holder of the license, or certificate, ~~or limited permit~~ shall have the right to request a hearing to show cause why the order of summary suspension should not be continued and the order of summary suspension shall notify the holder of the license, or certificate, ~~or limited permit~~ of that right. If a hearing to show cause is requested by the holder of the license, or certificate, ~~or limited permit~~, the hearing shall be scheduled on a date within 20 days of receipt by the board of the request for the hearing to show cause.

SECTION 10. 448.02 (5) of the statutes is amended to read:

448.02 (5) VOLUNTARY SURRENDER. The holder of any license, or certificate ~~or limited permit~~ granted by the board may voluntarily surrender the license, or certificate ~~or limited permit~~ to the secretary of the board, but the secretary may refuse to accept the surrender if the board has received allegations of unprofessional conduct against the holder of the license, or certificate ~~or limited permit~~. The board may negotiate stipulations in consideration for accepting the surrender of licenses.

SECTION 11. 448.02 (6) of the statutes is amended to read:

448.02 (6) RESTORATION OF LICENSE; OR CERTIFICATE ~~OR LIMITED PERMIT~~. The board may restore any license, or certificate ~~or limited permit~~ which that has been voluntarily surrendered or revoked under any of the provisions of this subchapter, on such terms and conditions as it may deem appropriate.

SECTION 12. 448.02 (8) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

448.02 (8) (a) After an investigation by the board under sub. (3) (a) or by the department under s. 440.03 (3m) or (5), the board may issue a private and confidential administrative warning to a holder of a license, or certificate ~~or limited permit~~ if the board determines that there is evidence of misconduct by him or her. The board may issue an administrative warning under this paragraph only if the board determines that no further action is warranted because the matter involves a first occurrence of minor misconduct and the issuance of an administrative warning adequately protects the public by putting the holder of the license, or certificate ~~or limited permit~~ on notice that any subsequent misconduct may result in disciplinary action. The board shall review the determination if the holder of the license, or certificate ~~or limited permit~~ makes a personal appearance before the board. Following the review, the board may affirm, rescind or modify the administrative warning. A holder of a license, or certificate ~~or limited permit~~ may seek judicial review under ch. 227 of an affirmation or modification of an administrative warning by the board.

SECTION 13. 448.02 (8) (b) of the statutes is amended to read:

448.02 (8) (b) An administrative warning issued under par. (a) does not constitute an adjudication of guilt or the imposition of discipline and may not be used as evidence that the holder of a license, or certificate ~~or limited permit~~ is guilty of misconduct.

SECTION 14. 448.02 (8) (c) of the statutes is amended to read:

448.02 (8) (c) Notwithstanding par. (b), if the board receives a subsequent allegation of misconduct about a holder of a license, or certificate ~~or limited permit~~ to whom the board issued an administrative warning under par. (a), the board may reopen the matter that resulted in the issuance of the administrative warning or use the administrative warning in any subsequent disciplinary hearing under sub. (3) (b) as evidence that he or she had actual knowledge that the misconduct that was the basis for the administrative warning was contrary to law.

SECTION 15. 448.04 (1) (ac) of the statutes is created to read:

448.04 (1) (ac) Administrative physician license. The board may grant an administrative physician license to an applicant who satisfies the requirements under s. 448.05 (2c). The board shall issue a license under this paragraph subject to the same terms as a license issued under par. (a), except that, notwithstanding any other provision of law that permits a physician to engage in any act that constitutes the practice of medicine and surgery, the holder of a license issued under this paragraph may not engage in the practice of medicine and surgery except as otherwise authorized under s. 448.03 (2) and may not practice as provided in s. 448.035.

SECTION 16. 448.04 (1) (b) 2. of the statutes is repealed.

SECTION 17. 448.04 (1) (bg) and (bm) of the statutes are created to read:

448.04 (1) (bg) Restricted license to practice medicine and surgery as a visiting physician. 1. The board may grant a restricted license to practice medicine and surgery as a visiting physician to an applicant who satisfies the requirements under s. 448.05 (2) (e).

2. The holder of a license issued under this paragraph may engage in the practice of medicine and surgery only at the medical education facility, medical research facility, or medical college where the license holder is teaching, researching, or practicing, and only in accordance with the terms and restrictions established by the board.

3. Subject to subd. 4., a license issued under this paragraph is valid for one year and may be renewed at the discretion of the board.

4. A license issued under this paragraph remains valid only while the license holder is actively engaged in teaching, researching, or practicing medicine and surgery and is lawfully entitled to work in the United States.

(bm) Resident educational license to practice medicine and surgery. 1. The board may grant a resident educational license to practice medicine and surgery to an applicant who satisfies the requirements under s. 448.05 (2) (d).

WISCONSIN LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL AMENDMENT MEMO

2013 Senate Bill 579

Senate Amendment 1

Memo published: February 18, 2014

Contact: Laura Rose, Deputy Director (266-9791)

The bill makes various changes regarding the licenses to practice medicine and surgery and related credentials issued by the Medical Examining Board (MEB).

In general, to be eligible for a license to practice medicine, an individual must graduate from medical school, pass a medical licensing examination, and complete a specified amount of postgraduate training (commonly referred to as “residency”).

Senate Amendment 1 (SA 1) pertains to the residency training requirements for license applicants who are graduates of foreign medical colleges. The bill requires that they must have successfully completed and received credit for 24 months of postgraduate training in an accredited program. The last 12 months of the training must be completed in a single program.

SA 1 provides that a graduate of a foreign medical school is also eligible to apply for a license if all of the following apply:

- The applicant’s currently enrolled in an accredited postgraduate training program.
- The applicant has completed and received credit for 12 consecutive months of postgraduate training in that program.
- The applicant has received an unrestricted endorsement from the program director that includes confirmation that the applicant is expected to continue in the program and complete at least 24 months of postgraduate training.

Under SA 1, the residency training requirements for graduates of foreign medical schools are the same as the requirements for graduates of U.S. medical schools.

BILL HISTORY

SA 1 was offered on February 10, 2014, by Senator Vukmir.

On February 13, 2014, the Senate Committee on Health and Human Services voted to recommend adoption of SA 1, and passage of the bill, as amended, on successive votes of Ayes, 5; Noes, 0.
