Plumbing Continuing Education Online Videos

There are also three sets of plumbing education video recordings available for credit that can be viewed over the Internet. The presentations are available to anyone to view for their own interest, regardless of whether they want continuing education credits.

The process for obtaining continuing education credits for the online classes involves watching the video that will be streamed to your computer on demand, then answering some questions concerning the presentation. The answer sheets are to be sent back to S&B with an attendance verification form and a check to cover the class fee. The questions and verification form are also available online as PDF files, linked next to the video files.

These videos can be found at the following link: <http://dsps.wi.gov/SB/SB-DivContinuingEdVideo.html>.
