POWTS plans designed and approved using the above-cited component manuals will remain valid as long as a state Sanitary Permit is issued before the expiration date of the original POWTS plan approval. If the POWTS is not installed during the initial state Sanitary Permit approval period and a request is made to renew the state Sanitary Permit, the renewal application will need to be accompanied by a new or revised plan design that is approved based on a current POWTS component manual.

This information will be posted on our website. However, please feel free to distribute copies of this message as deemed appropriate.

We are aware that there are a small number of individuals around the state that tend to renew their state Sanitary Permits several times until they are ready to proceed with a POWTS installation. If you know someone that is in this situation it would be helpful to contact them and explain what will happen if they choose to wait and renew their state Sanitary Permit another time.

If you have any questions about this POWTS Component Manual phase-out, please let me know. Thanks!
