(1) For dumbwaiters these tests may be performed every 5-years per SPS 318.170811(8). These tests must be performed annually for the other conveyance types listed above, with the exception of (2).

(2) For Part V or Private Residence type elevators in commercial buildings these tests are typically not required unless required as a condition of granting a petition for variance or if ordered by the inspector due to a specific problem discovered during an inspection.

A copy of this completed test form or a similar record of results of the applicable tests must be located on site according to SPS 318.17086(2)(g) 1 or 2 as applicable.

Elevator test records and other required documentation are not to be accessed via an elevator car top. See ASME A17.1, 8.6.1.4.1, 8.6.1.7.2 and SPS 318.17086(5) for additional information regarding on-site records and test tags.

Per SPS 318.17086(4) periodic tests may be witnessed an inspector of the department, agent municipality or by a person authorized by the department or agent municipality.
