CHIROPRACTIC BOARD

Reasons for delay of licensure:

1. WCA sends an email with applicant forms attached, with no reference in the email to the list of names being attached. Applicant Tom Brown calls and asks “have you received all of my documentation.” If his name was not listed in the body of the email from WCA, his name will not appear in the search. In this scenario, he would be told “no, we are missing documentation from WCA.” This results in multiple submissions from WCA. It is imperative that WCA provide a list of names in the body of the emails, stating who is included in the attachment. When we search for Tom Brown, his name will appear in the body of the WCA email and we are able to review his documentation and it can be updated timely.
2. Pre pandemic we averaged 1100 applications for Health monthly. During the pandemic we have averaged 2500 applications monthly. We have doubled our workload, however have not doubled our staffing levels.
3. Applicants do not submit a complete application. Missing items include: complete address with city, state, & zip code, SSN, DOB, form 2252 for past convictions, transcripts sent by school for both their bachelor and doctorate degrees, and current CPR-AED cards. Other delays include passing WIOB, and NBCE scores.
4. Normal processing times are the following: CRT = 30 days, CT = 30 days, and Chiropractor = 45-90 days. However during the pandemic, and during our summer graduation season when work load is extremely high, more realistic processing times become: CRT = 45-60 days, CT = 45-60 days, and Chiropractor = 90 days.
