(c) The contestant hangs or leans helplessly on the ropes, cage, or opponent as the result of a legal strike or series of legal strikes.

(2) REFEREE COMMANDS. (a) Except as provided in par. (b), when a contestant is knocked down, the referee shall immediately command "Down" and signal by pointing to the canvass. After a command of "Down," the bout may not continue until the command "Fight" is given by the referee.

(b) If a contestant sustains an injury from a legal strike or series of legal strikes that is severe enough to terminate the bout, the referee shall immediately stop the bout and the injured contestant shall lose the bout by a decision of technical knock-out.

(1) (a) or (b) has not occurred, the referee shall immediately command "No Knockdown" and signal by extending both hands and arms and crisscrossing them across the front of the body at waist level.

(3) NEUTRAL CORNER. When a contestant is knocked down, the opponent shall go at once to the neutral corner designated by the referee.

(4) COUNT FOR A KNOCKDOWN. The referee shall count aloud and provide intervals of one second between the numbers, and shall indicate each second with his or her hand in a manner such that the contestant who has been knocked down is aware of the count. Before the number "one" is counted, an interval of one second shall have elapsed from the time the contestant was knocked down and the time of announcing "one." If the contestant is not ready to continue fighting before the count of 10, the bout shall be stopped and the contestant shall lose the bout by a decision of knock-out.

(b) If the opponent does not go to the neutral corner as required under sub. (3), the referee shall stop counting until the opponent has done so. The counting shall then be continued where it has been interrupted.

If an amateur bout is stopped under this subsection, the contestant who has been knocked down 3 times in one round shall lose the bout by a decision of technical knock-out.

The referee shall count aloud in a manner such that the contestant who has been knocked out of the ring is aware of the count. Before the number "one" is counted, an interval of one second shall have elapsed from the time the contestant was knocked out of the ring and the time of announcing "one." If the contestant has not returned to a standing and ready position within the ring before the count of 20, the bout shall be stopped and the contestant shall lose the bout by disqualification.

If the contestant immediately ceases contact with the ropes, cage, or opponent, the referee may determine a knockdown has not occurred.

(c) The contestant hangs or leans helplessly on the ropes, cage, or opponent as the result of a legal strike or series of legal strikes.

(2) REFEREE COMMANDS. (a) Except as provided in par. (b), when a contestant is knocked down, the referee shall immediately command "Down" and signal by pointing to the canvass. After a command of "Down," the bout may not continue until the command "Fight" is given by the referee.

The referee shall count aloud and provide intervals of one second between the numbers, and shall indicate each second with his or her hand in a manner such that the contestant who has been knocked down is aware of the count. Before the number "one" is counted, an interval of one second shall have elapsed from the time the contestant was knocked down and the time of announcing "one." If the contestant is not ready to continue fighting before the count of 10, the bout shall be stopped and the contestant shall lose the bout by a decision of knock-out.

The referee shall count aloud in a manner such that the contestant who has been knocked out of the ring is aware of the count. Before the number "one" is counted, an interval of one second shall have elapsed from the time the contestant was knocked out of the ring and the time of announcing "one." If the contestant has not returned to a standing and ready position within the ring before the count of 20, the bout shall be stopped and the contestant shall lose the bout by disqualification.
