The Department may not disclose the employer identification number or social security number collected above except to the Department of Children and Families for purposes of administering the child and spousal support program, to the Department of Revenue for the purpose of determining whether you are liable for delinquent taxes, and to the federal Healthcare Integrity and Protection Data Bank for the purpose of reporting adverse actions against health care practitioners.

DELINQUENT STATE TAXES; DELINQUENT SUPPORT

All applications for professional credentials are checked to determine whether the applicant is liable for delinquent state taxes. Under state law, the department must deny your application if you are liable for delinquent Wisconsin taxes. If you are liable for delinquent state taxes, pay the delinquent amount before the application process is completed. Retain proof that you have satisfied the tax delinquency. If you have any questions about payment of delinquent taxes, please contact your nearest Department of Revenue office or call (608) 251-3036. An application may be denied or a credential suspended if an applicant or credential holder is delinquent in paying support or fails to comply with a subpoena or warrant issued by the department of workforce development or a county child support agency related to support or paternity proceedings.
