Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, no person may engage in the practice of psychology without being licensed as a psychologist by the Psychology Examining Board. This bill makes various revisions to the laws governing the board and the practice of psychology. Significant changes are described as follows:

Psychology Examining Board; composition

Under current law, the board is required to be composed of six members, including four licensed psychologists and two public members. Current law requires that each psychologist member represent a different specialty area within the field of psychology.

The bill eliminates the requirement that each psychologist member represent a different specialty area within the field of psychology and instead simply requires that the governor, to the extent possible, nominate psychologists to the board who represent different specialty areas within the field of psychology.

Private practice school psychologists

Under current law, no person may engage in the private practice of school psychology without a private practice school psychologist license.

The bill allows private practice school psychologists who are licensed under current law to continue to renew their licenses and engage in the private practice of school psychology. However, the bill otherwise discontinues the licensure of private practice school psychologists. The bill continues to allow the practice of school psychology in school settings without a license issued by the board by individuals credentialed by the Department of Public Instruction.

Psychology; scope of practice and licensure requirements

1. The bill revises the definition of the “practice of psychology” for purposes of the requirement that an individual obtain a psychologist license in order to engage in that practice. The bill also revises various provisions that exempt certain types of individuals from the licensure requirement and adds a number of additional exemptions.

2. The bill revises the licensure requirements that must be satisfied in order to be granted a psychologist license by the board. The changes include eliminating a prohibition on the board promulgating rules to require an internship.

3. The bill eliminates the ability of the board to deny a license based on an applicant’s arrest record.

Interim license

The bill requires the board to issue an interim psychologist license to an applicant who satisfies all of the requirements for a psychologist license, other than the postdoctoral supervised experience requirement. An interim license is valid for two years or until the individual obtains a permanent license, subject to a hardship exemption prescribed by the board by rule that could allow renewals beyond two years.

Continuing education

The bill makes various changes concerning continuing education for psychologists, including requiring licensees to maintain records of compliance with continuing education requirements for at least six years.

Various other changes

The bill makes various other changes to the laws governing the practice of psychology, including:

1. Allowing the board to require a licensee or applicant to submit to a psychological examination when there is reasonable cause to believe that the individual is physically or mentally incapable of engaging in the practice of psychology with reasonable skill such that he or she may endanger the safety of patients or clients.

2. Various revisions to the laws governing professional discipline of psychologists, including specifically allowing the board to take disciplinary action against a licensee who practices outside the scope of his or her training, experience, or education without appropriate supervision.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. 15.405 (10m) of the statutes is amended to read:

Subject: ASPPB: EPPP Part 2 - Skills: Pilot Exam Invite

Dear Wisconsin Psychology Examining Board,

As you know, ASPPB is launching the EPPP Part 2 – Skills, in January 2020. We are pleased to announce that we are offering a pilot of this new exam in the summer of 2019.

Over the past few years we have been diligently working with our item writers and committee members to put together the new skills portion of the EPPP. As part of our commitment to quality, we would like to gather information on the timing, structure, appearance and flow of the exam. In order to do this, ASPPB is offering our 64 member jurisdictions the ability to preview the exam - in an official Pearson VUE testing center. ASPPB will cover all costs associated with the exam, and in exchange we're asking for your comments, feedback and critique.

Here's what you need to know:

1. We are offering one (1) free exam for a Board Member per jurisdiction.
2. The pilot exam will consist of 100 items, including animations, complex scenarios and enhanced items that will require the candidate to point and click, and drag and drop.
3. The pilot will be available in Pearson VUE testing centers, throughout the US and Canada, during the months of July and August 2019.
4. The goal of this pilot exam is to gather feedback, not to test the pilot test takers knowledge of the content.
5. Candidates will be able to select the time and location of their exam, but the pilot exam will expire on August 31st, 2019.

Please use the following link to apply for a pilot exam spot. You will be notified by email if you are approved to sit for the exam. We would recommend that jurisdictions nominate an examinee who is a current board member, and who holds an active license:

May 2019

Dear State of Wisconsin Boards, Councils and Committee Member,

As you may already know, operation of the Department of Safety and Professional Services (DSPS) is self-funded by the fees associated with the occupation or business credentials it issues and regulates under chapters 440 to 480 of Wisconsin Statutes.

Wisconsin State Statute § 440.03(9)(a) requires DSPS to conduct a professional licensure fee study every two years to adjust fees for the succeeding fiscal biennium. The purpose of the fee study is to reflect the approximate administrative and enforcement costs of the department that are attributable to the regulation of the referenced credentials.

On February 20, 2019, the Joint Finance Committee approved the FY 2019-2021 professional licensure fee study conducted by the DSPS. I am pleased to provide you with the new fee schedule that will take effect on July 1, 2019.

The new fees are based on actual operating costs and revenues for DSPS for fiscal years 2017 and 2018 (July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2018). A detailed explanation how the fees were recalculated, including licensure/credential participation rates, complaints and investigations, and adjustments for inflation can be found in the Frequently Asked Questions document.

For all regulated professional and medical licenses and credentials (except the renewal fee for one profession noted in the enclosed fee schedule), initial application and renewal fees will be reduced or maintained at the current level, including the following:

- Maintaining initial and renewal fees for 43 licenses/credentials (approximately 25 percent)
- Reducing initial fees for 82 licenses/credentials (approx. 48 percent) with an average reduction of $26.78
- Reducing renewal fees for 121 licenses/credentials (approx. 71 percent) with an average reduction of $57.42
- Reducing both the initial and renewal fees for 80 licenses/credentials (approx. 47 percent)
- Providing a fee reduction to at least one of the fees (initial and/or renewal) for 127 licenses/credentials (approx. 75 percent)
- Establishing equal fees for both initial applications and renewals with a maximum fee of $75 for 163 licenses/credentials (approx. 96 percent) (exceptions per state statute for fees related to Appraisal Management Companies and Transportation Network Companies; exception per administrative code for fees related to Unarmed Combat Sports)
- Providing a reduced fee to an estimated 361,000 Wisconsin licensure/credential applicants over the next biennium, (approx. 96 percent of all applicants)

The new fee schedule will take effect beginning with initial license applications received in the Department and/or postmarked on or after July 1, 2019, and for license renewals that have an effective date of July 1, 2019 or later. It should be noted that if a license holder receives a notice of renewal prior to July 1, 2019, for a renew-by date of after July 1, 2019, the new fees will apply regardless of when the notice is received or when payment is made. If a license holder's renew-by date is before July 1, 2019, and the payment is made after July 1, 2019, the fee noted on the notice of renewal will still apply. If the license holder's renew-by date is on or after July 1, 2019, the new fees will apply.

If you have any questions regarding the information provided, please do not hesitate to contact Yolanda McGowan, Division Administrator, Division of Policy Development.

Sincerely,
