Hi Debra

I don't know if you are aware of this new requirement from ASWB regarding the taking of the LCSW exam. This new policy seems to contradict Wisconsin law. The Social Workers Section will probably need to discuss this issue.

Subject: ASWB Exam Use Policy RE: National-Chapter Government Relations Teleconference Notes and Reminder

Hello all,

I am sorry I wasn't on the GR call yesterday but Kay filled me in on the discussion regarding licensure updates.

Here is ASWB's Exam use policy that was passed by ASWB July 2016. It states that jurisdictions that were out of compliance with ASWB's use of the exams were notified and have 5 years (July 1, 2021) to comply.

North Carolina is out of compliance in that we allow/require LCSWAs to take the exam within 2 years of receiving their LCSWA. ASWB says the clinical exam cannot be taken until all 3,000 clinical hours and 100 hours of supervision are complete.

After two years and finally coming to a compromise with the North Carolina Social Work Certification and Licensure Board on a number of other legislative changes, our bill was introduced in February but has now hitchhiked into two other bills because the North Carolina legislature is, well, terrible. Here is our original bill:

We are now in our 3rd bill, which has passed the House unanimously twice, but the Senate did not concur because who knows why, and we hope a conference committee will pass our bill this week, next week? Sigh.

I am happy to chat with anyone who has questions about how we were able to negotiate some things with our board.
