

Current Pre-Certification Education Nursing Home Administrator Approved Programs

Wis. Admin. Code § NHA 3.01 requires all regular courses of study, programs of study, and specialized courses be approved by the Board. Courses are approved only on the basis that they meet the requirement as specified in Wis. Stats. § 456.04(4).

“Regular course of study” means a prescribed program of courses offered by a university or college, accredited by a regional or national accrediting agency recognized by the U.S. department of education, which leads to an associate, baccalaureate, master or doctoral degree and which includes a program of study* and a supervised clinical practicum.

“Specialized courses” means individual courses offered by one or more educational institutions or course providers which lead to adequate preparation in each of the following general subject areas in nursing home administration: (a) Administration of a nursing home. (b) Long-term patient care. (c) Organizations of health-care systems

*Program of study means a prescribed sequence of courses that is offered by a university or college accredited by a regional or national accrediting agency recognized by the U.S. department of education and that consists of at least one course of 3 credit hours in each of the following: (a) Laws governing the operation of licensed nursing homes. (b) Elements of proper and effective administration of licensed nursing homes. (c) Protection of the interests, safety, and well-being of residents. (d) Psychological, physical, medical, and social needs of residents.
