DSPS Attorney Sarah Norberg Honored as a 2023 Legal All-Star

Milwaukee, Wis. – The Wisconsin Law Journal honored 29 Legal All-Stars on Wednesday afternoon in downtown Milwaukee.

The All-Stars were recognized in categories that included Leaders in the Law, Rising Young Lawyers, and Unsung Heroes. The 12 Unsung Heroes award winners included Department of Safety and Professional Services (DSPS) Attorney Supervisor Sarah Norberg.

“What a wonderful honor,” Norberg said of the award after Wednesday’s ceremony. “It’s always great to be recognized by your peers. I’m proud of the work I’ve done, and I’m grateful to those who noticed my work and nominated me.”

Norberg’s contributions include work on a strategic restructuring of DSPS credentialing legal services, a comprehensive review of credentialing processes to find opportunities for greater efficiency, and identification of staffing needs. That work led to a decrease in DSPS credentialing legal review times from 12 weeks to the current two weeks.

“Sarah’s work was instrumental in the improvements in legal review times,” said DSPS Chief Legal Counsel Al Rohmeyer. “Her ability to identify the changes that needed to be made and advocate to see those changes through are worthy of this recognition.”

About DSPS: DSPS issues more than 240 unique licenses, administers dozens of boards and councils that regulate professions, enforces state building codes, and maintains the Wisconsin Enhanced Prescription Drug Monitoring Program, which is a key tool in the multi-faceted public health campaign to stem excessive opioid prescribing. A fee-based agency, DSPS is self-sustaining and receives no general fund tax dollars for its day-to-day operations. With four offices and 250 employees throughout Wisconsin, DSPS collaborates with constituents and stakeholders across a wide range of industries to promote safety and advance the economy.
