

Electric Grills FAQs

1. NFPA 1 (2012) Section 10.11.6 – 9/2024

Q: Does NFPA 1 Section 10.11.6.1 apply to electric grills?

A: Yes. Under section SPS 314.01 (6) (a) Interpretations. Department authority., the Department has determined that an electric grill is one of the similar devices which are referenced in NFPA 1 section 10.11.6.1 and therefore cannot be used on the balconies and at the other locations described in that section – unless the grill is listed for that use and does not have an exposed heating element.
