TEMPORARY LICENSE APPLICATION INFORMATION (Wis. Admin. Code § MPSW 11.035):

- A temporary license application described here is optional and can be submitted in LicensE after your LicensE application for a permanent professional counselor license has been submitted.
- A temporary license described here is only available to those applicants applying for a full, permanent LPC license via the Exam method. (LPC and LPC-IT applicants currently credentialed in good standing in another state interested in a temporary license should view Act 10 information in Form 2021-A101 and the Act 10 Key Steps document.)
- The temporary license described here, once granted, allows an applicant for full LPC licensure the opportunity to practice while scheduled to take a national exam. It cannot be granted until all other requirements (except the national exam requirement) have been met.
- The temporary license described here is valid for a period not to exceed 9 months from the date of its issuance and may be renewed once upon receipt of a written request to the Professional Counselor Section and a non-refundable $10 renewal fee.
